16 HAVING considered the parties' Joint Motion for Extension of Time to Indict and 17 good cause having been shown;

18 THE COURT makes the following findings:

19 1. Counsel for defendant has only recently been appointed;

20 2. The defendant earnestly wishes to consider the plea offer extended by the 21 government;

22 3. The defendant wishes to investigate possible defenses prior to considering 23 the government's plea offer, which is made pursuant to a 'fast track' early 24 disposition program authorized by the Department of Justice pursuant to § 25 401(m) of the Prosecuting Remedies and Tools Against the Exploitation of Children Today Act of 2003 (PROTECT Act), Pub. L. 108-21, 117 Stat.
650 (Apr. 30, 2003);

- 1 4. The government's plea offer, if accepted by the defendant and then the
- 2 court, would likely reduce defendant's exposure to a significant term of
- 3 imprisonment;
- 4 5. If the defendant does not timely accept the plea offer prior to indictment,
- 5 the government will withdraw said plea offer and any subsequent plea offer
- 6 after indictment would likely be less advantageous to the defendant;
- 7 6. Failure to extend time for indictment in this instance would thus operate to
- 8 bar defendant from reviewing the government's plea offer in a meaningful
- 9 way prior to indictment;
- 10 7. Granting an extension of time for indictment in this case is likely to result
- 11 in the case being resolved earlier, which would further the public's interest
- 12 in the timely and efficient administration of justice; and
- 13 8. The ends of justice served by this continuance outweigh the best interest of
- 14 the public and the defendant in a speedy indictment.

12 The Court therefore concludes that the ends of justice are best served by granting 13 an extension of time to present the case to the grand jury and in excluding a period of 14 thirty (30) days under the Speedy Trial Act. In making this determination, the Court has 15 particularly taken into account that the failure to grant the Defendant's request "would 16 deny counsel for the defendant . . . the reasonable time necessary for effective
17 preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence." 18 U.S.C. §
18 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv).

19 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the parties' Joint Motion for Extension of Time to 20 Indict requesting an extension of thirty (30) days within which the government may seek 21 to indict defendant, is hereby granted.

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18
23 U.S.C. §3161, the Government shall have an extension of thirty (30) days to file a timely
24

Indictment. Excludable time shall begin to run on the 31st day after arrest for a period of thirty (30) days in which the Government may present the case to the grand jury.

DATED this 14th day of November, 2008.
